Wolf Photography & DAN

Wolf Photography is a therapeutic work project.

During 2013 – 2014 I ran two exhibitions with funding from Arts Council England and the National Lottery: Living with PTSD and Intimacy with Plants. The project over-delivered on the set targets and are still delivering today.

The next stage of my project is to enable other disabled artists to have an opportunity to show their art and to take that initial risk and share something of their soul. The inaugural exhibition was a powerful mix of talent – disabled artists sharing personal stories and other artists describing the link between creativity and wellbeing.

It's a rolling exhibition – meaning that it won't end – other artists' work will replace the existing pieces, in time. So please keep an eye on the Facebook Page and visit the venue.

The project has been made possible with the support of Tesco Bulwell Extra, by allowing me to use their venue for the project, and the following companies:

The project, Disabled Artists' Network (DAN) has a link to another activity that I am involved with that I use to cope with my disability. I'll let you find what that is.

If you'd like to exhibit in this project, please visit the Facebook page:

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/WPDAN>. I'll check your work out and then get in touch to take things further. You can provide a description of your work here – however, for the exhibition, we need a personal statement that describes either:

- 1) How you've coped with your disability using creativity

Or

- 2) How you use creativity to promote wellbeing within yourself

Statements must fit onto 1 sheet of A4, using the Calibri font at size 14 – see example below. You don't have to write a poem – that's just an example of what I've done in the past.

We can exhibit anything that you can hang on a wall with or without a frame - paintings, photography, house small sculptures, hand-made jewelry (must be framed - but no precious metals), short stories, poetry – whatever your idea – let me know ... if it's possible, I'll get it displayed.

Artists must ensure that their work is framed and ready for hanging using mirror plates. You're responsible for the hanging and taking down of your own work – I will assist you where possible.

I wish you luck on your journey and hope that you'll be a part of this rolling exhibition and touch and inspire others to live a happier life in some way, if possible. Please feel free to arrange your own media coverage of your exhibition.

EXAMPLE STATEMENT

Mental Health, Stigma and PTSD (email your statement as Text please)

Human Society can be cruel when it comes to people that aren't considered 'normal'. A person with a physical disability may be easier to recognise, accept and cater for, where people with mental health conditions can end up labelled as strange, abnormal or just mad.

People with physical disabilities can be subjected to stigma ... but people with mental health issues seem to be stigmatised a lot more by society.

My disability is Post Traumatic Stress Disorder and it was due to serving in the armed forces in Northern Ireland back in the 1980s.

People expect me to be able to fit into their cliques, their ways of thinking, ways of being, ways of looking after themselves ... but they forget that when every aspect of human society has, at some time, shunned you, subjected you to injustice and attempted to strip you of your dignity, that you learn to walk alone and look after yourself as best as you can ... and that you learn to make up your own mind about the issues in your societies. You also develop your own coping mechanisms.

Living with PTSD is still an isolating experience...so I escape with my camera. Photography and writing are my meds and enabling other disabled artists to express themselves or promoting creativity for wellbeing – my purpose – for the rest of this journey. My art is for sale. Please contact me if you're interested in buying something.

Artists Insurance

Neither Tesco, DAN, WIPE, WPICC nor Wolf Photography accept any responsibility for any damage to your art – or for the theft of your art or Intellectual Property. However, the building is properly secured and monitored by CCTV.

We have looked into the issue of artists' insurance and have the following option for you:

SAA - <http://www.saa.co.uk/insurance-page>. Please phone them first and let them know that you're looking to exhibit with DAN and let them help you pick the right plan for you.

If you exhibit at various shows throughout the year, it may be worth your taking up a membership with A-N (<https://www.a-n.co.uk/news>) and applying for a bespoke insurance quote.

Website Hosting

We have partnered up with LCN (<http://www.lcn.com>) to offer you a 50% discount on their annual hosting plan if you're a Not-For-Profit setup. The domain name is extra. This is only useful if you can write your own website or can use Wordpress.

Alternatively there are many free site offers around – just do a Google search for 'free websites'.

Business Cards

Vistaprint provide good basic and deluxe business cards (<http://www.vistaprint.co.uk/>). If you sign up to their newsletter, they email you out weekly discounts and special offers.

Couriers

I use Parcel2go (<https://www.parcel2go.com/>) – once you've entered your details, the weight and dimensions and address of delivery, they'll find you options with different couriers. Please remember to insure your art for transportation.
