

If Tomorrow Were Today

If tomorrow were today,
The magic it would play,
The song inside,
Dreams held within,
The dance along the way.
A serenade, as lovers do,
Held close into the night,
To the moon, with you in hand,
Shoot-back into the light.
With the sunrise, dance again,
The magic that it brings,
Dreaming of tomorrow,
The way that lovers sing.
If tomorrow were today,
And my dreams could come true,
The magic that I'm dreaming of,
A lifetime filled with you.
